The Destination

Komodo National Park

Komodo is one of the world's top diving destinations, primely situated in the famous Coral Triangle - the currents drag the warm waters of the Pacific Ocean and colder waters of the Indian Ocean together, providing ideal conditions for the largest variety of marine life on the planet. The Komodo National Park was founded to protect the Komodo dragon (world's largest lizard), marine species, and other flora & fauna. It is located about 400km east of Bali and includes three larger islands - Komodo, Padar and Rinca, and 26 smaller ones, with a total area of 1,733 sq km (603 sq km of it is land).

It is a UNESCO World Heritage site and considered among one of the world's top 25 biodiversity hotspots.

The Route

Ultimate Komodo: Land + Sea

Explore Komodo National Park in its entirety, from action packed diving to unique land based experiences

The best of liveaboard diving and land based excursions come together in this unique itinerary that covers the length and breadth of Komodo National Park. With remote dive sites in the North to the amazing topographies in the South, this trip provides encounters with unique marine and land based species.

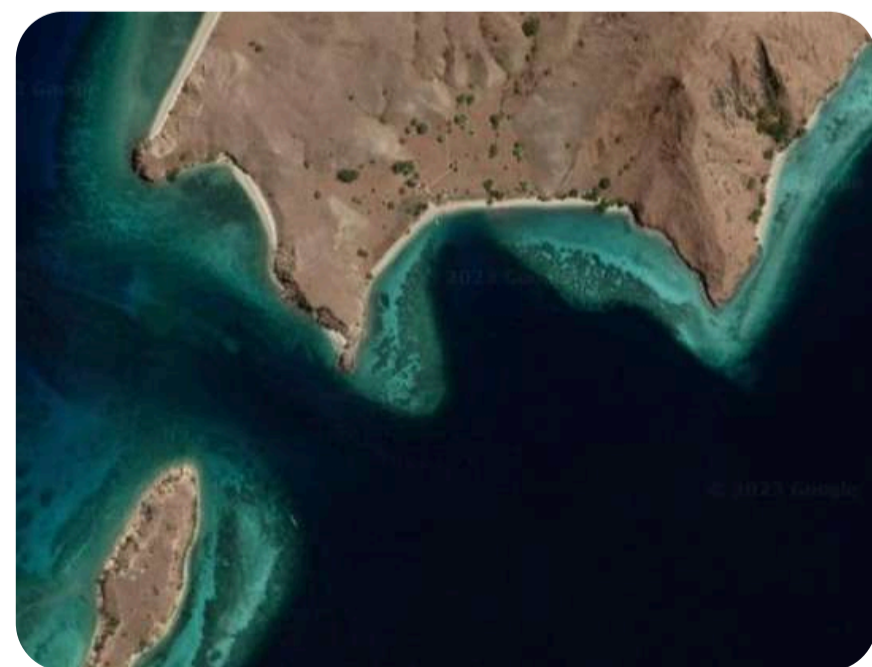

Average water temperatures in Komodo vary between 22°C to 29°C .

The best time to dive in Komodo is May to September, when the dry season brings calm waters and visibility upto 30 meters.

Iconic Dive Sites

Manta Alley, Shotgun, Castle Rock

High-speed currents or gentle drift dives, colourful walls with monumental boulders, endless valleys of coral gardens, seamounts and pinnacles or lunar-like seascapes, Komodo boasts it all. Divers will experience thrilling dives at world renowned dive sites in Komodo National Park such as Castle Rock, Crystal Rock, Manta Point, Batu Bolong, Tatawa Besar, Pulau Siaba Besar, The Cauldron (Shotgun), Tatawa Kecil, Three Sisters, Golden Passage.

Marine Life Highlights

Mantas, Sharks, Dolphins, Macro life

Komodo boasts thousands of species of corals and marine species with the chance to see anything from pygmy seahorses to manta rays. With over 4,000 species, the underwater world of Komodo offers unique and diverse encounters for divers – manta rays, eagle rays, dolphins, Reef sharks, banded shark, multiple species of octopus, crabs, and shrimps, turtles, schools of trevallies, barracudas, tuna, and colorful reef fish, nudibranchs, frogfish, and mantis shrimp.

Land Excursions

Komodo on Foot

A trip to Komodo National Park is incomplete without exploring the beaches, islands, and hiking trails. This trip includes –

- Hiking through beautiful trails at Padar and Gili Lawa to world renowned views of Komodo National Park.
- Sunset visit to the Pink Beach.
- Sunset visit to Kalong – well known for the colony of giant fruit bats nicknamed ‘Flying Foxes’.
- Trip to Rinca to see the famous Komodo Dragon.

Hello, I am Nishi and I'm a SCUBA diver, freediver, and entrepreneur. I used to be a data scientist but the call of Mother Ocean is bigger than us all. Few key life events and hours of introspection led me to quit the corporate world and I found myself sitting on the beach with a life jacket (yes, I did not know how to swim back then)! Over the last few years I've been grateful to have the opportunity to launch and grow our Maldives vertical, Mad over Maldives. Me and my team are humbled by the love and support we've received from our wonderful customers. Oceaon is now expanding boundaries and I am elated to host you in iconic dive destinations across the world.

Terms & Conditions

- We under no circumstances whatsoever will be liable to the travellers for: Any death, personal injury, sickness, accidents, loss, delay, discomfort, increased expenses, consequential loss and /or damage or theft caused during the trip.
- We retain the right to cancel or alter dives in the interest of the safety of all passengers, crews, and the vessel. The final call will be made by the cruise director.
- Dive cancellations due to bad weather or unforeseen circumstances may occur without prior announcement. In the event that a dive is cancelled for any reason, we will try our best to reschedule it for the next available day. However, if rescheduling is not possible, no refund will be provided.
- In the rare event that the trip gets cancelled due to but not limited to, operational and safety reasons such as major mechanical failure, fire, flooding, or structural damage, or an essential crew shortage (that prevents safe operation), weather and environmental conditions including severe storms, typhoons, hurricanes, or extreme sea conditions, as well as natural disasters like earthquakes, tsunamis, or volcanic eruptions, unforeseen ocean conditions such as strong currents or unsafe water conditions, legal and governmental restrictions including travel bans, national park closures, or changes in marine conservation laws, as well as port closures due to unforeseen circumstances, pandemics, epidemics, or other health crises, other force majeure and external factors such as war, terrorism, civil unrest, or security threats like piracy, airline or transport disruptions including flight cancellations, guest-related cancellations, such as insufficient bookings to meet the minimum required for operation, or medical emergencies affecting the crew or majority of guests, please note the following:
 - Oceacon will not be responsible for reimbursing or refunding any additional expenses incurred by you for the trip, such as (but not limited to) flight bookings, accommodations, visas, or any other associated costs.
 - In such cases, we will make every effort to arrange an alternative boat. However, if another boat is not available, the amount paid to Oceacon for the liveaboard trip will be refunded.
 - No refunds will be provided for any additional costs incurred by you outside of the payment made directly to Oceacon for the liveaboard trip itself.
 - We strongly recommend purchasing comprehensive travel insurance to cover any unforeseen cancellations or changes.
- Should there be government-related price increases (fuel, taxes, fees), we reserve the right to adjust the prices accordingly.
- Dive insurance is mandatory for this trip.
- Marine life is wild and unpredictable. We do not promise or guarantee any specific wildlife sightings.
- We do not guarantee same gender cabin sharing arrangements.
- Travellers are solely responsible for obtaining a Visa and clearing immigration. In the unlikely event that a traveller encounters difficulty obtaining the visa or clearing immigration, Oceacon shall not be held responsible, and no refunds will be provided.
- All Travellers are individually responsible to ensure they are medically fit to dive and have consulted a physician where necessary. All Travellers will be asked to fill a standard Diver Medical Form and produce necessary doctor's clearance certificates (if required) before commencing the first dive.
- We reserve the rights to post pictures, videos, testimonials from the trip on our social media and website.
